Trustee Out On Weekend Pass From County Jail Assaults Couple, Smashes Windshield

A minimum-security trustee at the Coffee County Jail released on a weekend pass proved to be anything but trustworthy last weekend, as he assaulted two teenagers, damaged a car and wound up in an Enterprise hospital to undergo surgery after being shot in the foot.

Johnny Lockett, a state prisoner serving a 10-year sentence for theft of property, was released on a weekend pass on Friday, June 18, at 5:30 p.m., by Sheriff Brice Paul, and within eight hours the trustee had been involved in two disturbances and had been shot.

Elba policeman Dave Gamper reported he received a radio report that a man had been shot at a housing project in Mulberry Heights at 1:14 a.m. on Saturday, June 19, and while en route to the scene, saw a vehicle on Jackson Street with a broken windshield. People standing around the vehicle said a mad man had kicked the window out with his bare feet and then run away. After ordering the people to remain at the vehicle, Gamper drove to the project and found Lockett shot in the heel of the foot. The victim was reportedly highly intoxicated, and unable to tell Gamper where he was shot and who shot him. Lockett was taken to the Elba General Hospital by the Elba Rescue Squad, where it was discovered he had been shot in the foot, with 19 pellets penetrating the skin. He was then transferred to the Coffee General Hospital in Enterprise for surgery.

After returning to the damaged vehicle, Patrolman Gamper discovered

Lockett had jumped on the car, bending the hood and roof, and kicked out the front windshield with his bare feet. While at the scene, it was also learned Lockett had attacked a young couple walking near the old Mulberry Heights school. Chris German (18), reported he and a 17-year-old female were walking to his car, which was parked at the school, when suddenly a man appeared and assaulted both of the teenagers. The man, later identified as Lockett, first struck German, and then punched the young woman in the face.

Lockett has been charged with two cases of assault (third degree) in connection with the attack on the young couple, and criminal mischief for damaging the car. He is now in the Coffee County Jail awaiting transfer to the hospital at Kilby Correctional Institute.

When contacted about Lockett's actions while out on a pass, Coffee County Sheriff Brice Paul said, "It was my decision to give him the pass and I felt he was trustworthy. Obviously he wasn't, and I take all responsibility."

Sheriff Paul reported that on Friday, June 18, there were 54 prisoners in the county jail, which contains only 36 beds. The Enterprise Police Dept. radioed it was transferring a woman to the county jail who was charged in the beating death of her 20-month-old child. Two women were already in a two-prisoner cell, and there was no room to house the woman who was en route, so, according to Sheriff Paul, he decided to move the two female inmates to a four-prisoner cell, and place the accused murderer in a cell by herself. In order to make room for the two women, Paul made the decision to give three male trustees a weekend pass. The three were all members of an Elba family, and had been trustees for several months, doing odd jobs around the courthouse. The three were instructed to go to their home and remain there until 1:30 Sunday, at which time they were to return to the jail. What happened during the hours which followed has already been reported.

"I stand by my policy to give passes to prisoners who work hard and deserve them," added Paul, "but this incident will end all passes. I have at times given passes to worthy inmates, and while most were only for a few hours, some were for overnight. This is the first time we have had an inmate arrested while on a pass. When I speak of giving passes, the public must understand there are two types of prisoners, and we never let out an inmate who might be dangerous—only the trustees. I try to be very selective, but prisoners are human, too, and they make mistakes."

"On this occasion," said Sheriff Paul, "the overnight passes wouldn't have been given if we had had room in the jail. However, there was no place to put 'em, and I took a chance and let them go home. In the future, I guess we'll just pile 'em on top of each other and go with the best we can do. It is a no-win situation."

Fence At Evergreen Cemetery Hit Twice By Errant Drivers

The Elba Police Department investigated two incidents of automobiles hitting the chain link fence around Evergreen Cemetery. Both incidents were within 25 feet of each other.

Saturday night officers not only investigated the accident, but also impounded a car allegedly responsible for the incident, classified as a hit-and-run.

The Monday night incident was similar but tracks indicated a different car was involved. No names have been released but officers say a young man has admitted being involved in the events of the Saturday evening incident.

His story and one reported to this newspaper Sunday afternoon by a man purporting to know all the details indicated the car was being worked on by several teenagers and when they drove it around the block it stalled in the middle of the road. One of the youths crawled under the car to work on the starter, and during this time the car allegedly jumped into gear and swerved into the fence. The caller to this newspaper stated it wasn't hit-and-run but a case of the youths' not knowing they should report a minor incident.

The fence had been straightened from the first incident and reportedly by the youths, but Monday night another car hit the same fence about 25 feet away. No information was available on that incident at presstime.

Administrator Tells Board Wing Has Been Shut Down

The Elba Hospital Authority met Wednesday morning at the hospital for the regular scheduled meeting of the hospital governing body.

The meeting opened with a discussion on the internal telephone system, with Administrator Jim Nichols recommending the selection of a new system by General Telephone over a similar one offered by Gulf Coast Electronics. Nichols cited the lower cost and potential for better and faster maintenance service from GTE. He noted that the present system is causing a lot of trouble and needs replacing while the telephone switchboard is being moved to a new location as part of the remodeling.

Nichols received a unanimous agreement from board members that a replacement was necessary, but they delayed action on the purchase because it would cause an immediate increase in monthly cost for a five-year period. Board member Pete Dorsey noted that even though the change was needed, the down payment plus added charges were hard to swallow at a time when the hospital is in a money pinch.

The board instructed Nichols to negotiate with the company, attempt to get the down payment lowered, and a possible deferred start on the increased monthly payments. A final decision will be made at the July meeting.

Pete Dorsey and Clayton Hickman were appointed to a budget committee and asked to call Chairman Doree Cook and other board members prior to each meeting and urge them to sit in on the discussions.

Nichols reported that the average census (patients in hospital) during May was 19. He told board members that both the south hall and west wing had been closed in an economy move, and would probably remain closed until additional doctors were available to attend additional patients. Nichols also noted that the staff had been cut by nine, and many still on the payroll were working short hours and some could almost be considered part time.

During this slack time many employees are working to paint-up fix-up the facility, and Nichols reported receiving favorable comments on this work.

Correction

Parents of Little Miss Elba first runner-up, Tosha Nunn, are Travis and Susan Nunn. Parents were wrongly named in last week's Clipper, due to incorrect information given us. The Clipper regrets this error.

Briefly.....

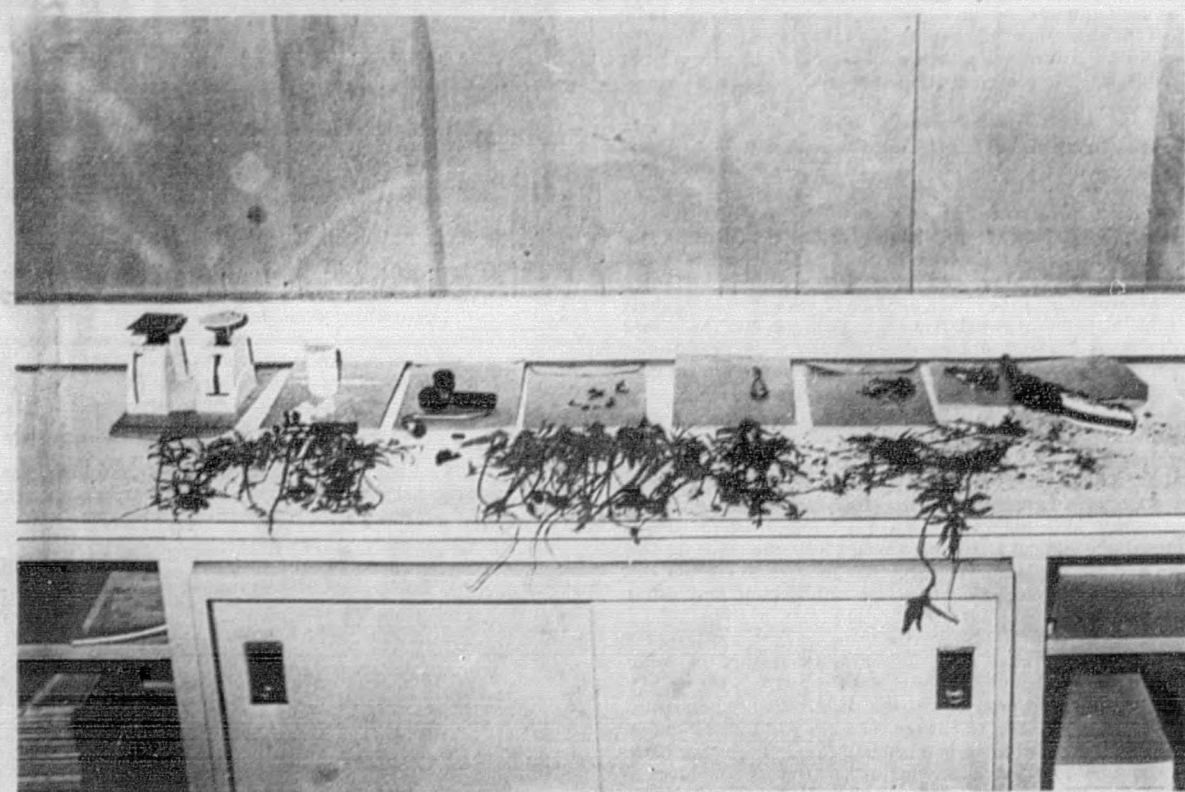

Terry John Brooks, a resident of Coffee County, was arrested on Monday, June 21, by Coffee County Deputy Sheriff John White, and charged with indecent exposure in connection with two recent reports of streaking in the northern part of the county.

The streaking occurred on Sunday, May 30, at the Jack Assembly of God Church, and at Thames Bridge. Witnesses reported a man drove up in a truck, jumped out naked, and ran around the vehicle. All witnesses gave a definite description of the truck, and the arrest came following a complete investigation. Brooks is now out on bond.

Donald McBride, of Rt. 2, Elba, was arrested and charged with second degree assault this week in connection with the recent assault of Aleane Russell, of Opp. The alleged assault took place at the home of the accused, and McBride is now out of jail on $1,000 bond.

A large number of indictments were passed down by the Coffee County Grand Jury—Elba Division, at its recent hearings, and a number of those indicted have already been arraigned by Judge Riley Green. They include: Andy Sutley—forgery, second degree, plead not guilty; Willie Lewis—Wilson—assault, third degree, plead not guilty; Ronald Allen Strickland—burglary, third degree, plead not guilty; Ronald Allen Strickland—burglary, first degree, plead not guilty; Ronald Allen Strickland—burglary, first degree, plead not guilty; Ronald Allen Strickland—burglary, third degree, plead not guilty; Ronald Allen Strickland—burglary, first degree, plead not guilty; and Elaine Taylor—forgery, second degree, plead not guilty.

Indicted on the charge of furnishing, giving away or sale of cocaine were both Susan Georgette Woodyard and Tommy Cauley. Both are awaiting arraignment. Also awaiting arraignment is Gary Phillip Hipp, on the charge of receiving stolen property, second degree.

Routine Arrest Leads Police To Drug Bust

The Elba Police Department recovered a stolen steam cleaner Tuesday, and when making an arrest in the case, discovered a cache of drug associated equipment, plants, and what police officers predicted lab tests would verify, was marijuana and marijuana "roaches," plus at least two kinds of pills and a bag of seeds.

Arrested in the case was Michael Brunson, Williams Street, Elba. Policeman Pete Daugherty had picked up the steam cleaner in Covington County earlier Tuesday, and Tuesday evening went to Brunson's home with a warrant for his arrest in the matter. Daugherty witnessed some of the illegal material at that time, and a night search warrant for the house and Brunson's automobile was obtained. The search was completed with Brunson present, according to police.

Officers participating in the search included Daugherty, Dave Gamper, Mark Kelley and Steven Ballard.

The steam cleaner had been reported stolen from Nasco in Elba Monday night of last week. It was found in a Covington County barn by Covington County officials, and picked up this week by Daugherty.

Items taken into custody by the officers included a 22 caliber pistol, a number of rounds of ammo, two sets of scales for weighing small amounts of light-weight materials, a bag of black capsules, 89 marijuana plants, a bag of marijuana seeds, a clip for holding small items such as cigarettes, two smoking pipes, some pills, a bag of dried material for smoking and several marijuana roaches, partially smoked. Officers indicated their experience led them to believe most of the items listed were related to the illegal use of drugs.

Brunson was arrested and placed in the Coffee County Jail. Bail had not been set at press time, pending the outcome of lab tests on the materials taken from the house.

Coroners Race Draws Big Field

Qualifying is continuing across the state in preparation for the upcoming Democratic primary, and here in Coffee County, it appears the most highly contested race will be for the position of coroner for the Elba division.

The office of coroner is a low-paid and glamorous position and usually draws little attention, however, as of Tuesday, June 22, three candidates had already qualified to seek the post. Seeking the office are incumbent Fred Moore, Hiram Glass and Ronnie Vaughan, all residents of Elba.

The Probate Judge's race continues to look like a two-man event with Marion Brunson, of Elba, and Billy Bishop, of Enterprise, already qualified to seek the office. County Commissioner Marvin Bowden has publicly stated he will enter the race, but he has yet to file qualifying papers. The race for the position of Sheriff at one time looked like a one-man show, however, that changed late last week when former Deputy Sheriff Bobby F. Whigham qualified to run against incumbent Sheriff Brice Paul.

At presstime, the office of coroner in the Enterprise division had only one qualifier, Jimmy Griffin, while the only person to file papers for the post of Place 5 on the Coffee County School Board was incumbent Bill Bolland.

County residents who have qualified for Beat Committeemen include: Beat 1—James E. Beas; Beat 2—Mack Donaldson; Beat 3—Jack Windham, Jr.; Beat 4—(Box 1) Joe S. Pittman, (Box 2) John H. Lester, (Box 3) Neal Adkison, (Box 4) Jim Henderson, (Box 5) Mark Jordan, (Box 6) Fred D. Donaldson, and (Box 8) Charles A. Ward; Beat 20—George W. Collier, and Beat 23—Albert L. Wise.

No one has qualified in Beats 4, 5, 6, (Box 4), 8, 9, 12, 14, 17 (Box 7), 18, 19, 21, and 22.

The deadline to qualify for an office is July 9 at 5:00 p.m.

Sen. Miller To Seek Re-election

Senator Wallace Miller announced in a press conference last Friday night that he would be a candidate for re-election this year. Miller serves the 25th Senatorial District in the Alabama legislature. The district is made up of Coffee, Covington, Geneva and part of Houston Counties.

Miller said, "The people of the 25th District have honored me by letting me hold this office. The office I hold belongs to the people - not to me. This office is very powerful; the future of all of us - our children and grandchildren - depends on the actions taken by the holder of this office. I feel I have been sensitive and responsive and have stayed in contact with the people while averaging some 60 hours a week in this job."

Miller continued with, "State government is big business, and it's your business! I know that with my successful background in agriculture, veterinary medicine and business, I am qualified to continue helping solve the problems and needs in the 25th Senatorial District and Alabama."

Miller is married to the former Ann Watkins of Elba.

Brainstorms

The Alabama Legislature is considering a bill that will postpone the effective date for the latest round of property reappraisal and related tax. Two bills were introduced and passed out of the House Ways and Means Committee to delay effective dates for the reappraisals from 1982 to 1983. They are a long way from becoming laws, but the prospects in this election year are great that we will get a one-year relief. However, this will cause problems for the counties, such as Coffee County, where the Revenue Commissioner has already completed work on the paperwork for collecting the increased tax in October of this year. When we say it will cost the county money, we mean it will cost us taxpayers money.

The Alabama Legislature will fuss and fume over the changes Governor James wants in the retirement system, but in spite of all the assurances the experts give that it will not hurt the soundness of the system, they will go to the effective politics of AEA and State Employees Association, especially during this political year.

We are in favor of the changes and are assured it will not hurt any person now working for the state, but will save us poor taxpayers money down the road. While we are making folks mad, let us also note that we oppose the proposed law on school prayer. Now we ain't against prayer in school, in fact we favor it, but we shudder to think what some of these followers of Rev. Moon and others frowned upon in Coffee County would do if they have even more laws protecting their "right" to worship or sell flowers in airports, etc. We would rather leave it alone and hope the children get their religion at home or in the voluntary unanimous consent system we now have. However, again we see the politics of things in a political year and predict the "prayer in school" bill will win approval during this special session.

Unless the delay in the property tax reassessment does pass the Alabama Legislature during this special session, land owners will have until June 30 to file for the "current use" status that could cut a sizeable amount from the taxes due on farm and timber land. We urge our readers to contact the assessor's or collector's office for information and do it immediately!

The expected uproar over the insanity verdict of John Hinckley in the shooting of President Reagan and others has arrived. This will probably be the trigger that successfully gets legislation rolling to change the ability to hide behind a plea of insanity for any crime committed. Ye of editor likes the law now in effect in at least one state that sentences a person regardless of the insanity verdict. Under this plan, the criminal can still get treatment for the illness, but after cure continues to serve the sentence but with credit for the time in the mental hospital. This would probably make the insanity plea less attractive as a defense and therefore speed up courtroom procedures.

We have a fishing story to tell but doubt we could get anyone to believe a story about that big bass pulling apart a deep running plug and escaping with a treble hook. Most folks would probably find something about the hook's being poorly connected because of my tendency to occasionally try pulling a big 'un out of a tree top or overhanging bush! We don't want those insults so we will keep that story to ourselves.

The hospital/nursing home expansion is about 70 percent complete and on schedule. With this completion and the definite improvement of our doctor situation in the making, the whole community should be able to rest easy pretty soon.

County politics are not exactly red hot, in fact we are not getting any of those regular visits that usually come with a heated political campaign. Maybe it is that they are getting a late start, but more than likely we are going to see one of the quietest local campaigns in recent history, especially in a year that both the probate judge and sheriff campaign.

Folsom Seeking Second Term On PSC

Jim Folsom Jr. has announced he intends to seek a second term on the Alabama Public Service Commission. In announcing his intentions, Folsom said he intends to campaign on continued upgrading of the Commission, such as computerization and continued support of the interests of the working people of Alabama.

In 1978, when he sought his first state-wide office, Folsom received more votes than anyone else on the ballot that year.

He said recently, "In 1978, when I was elected to the Alabama Public Service Commission, I campaigned on the platform of upgrading the Commission, and since that time we have made many improvements, and the Commission has acquired a well-qualified and experienced staff. Today, the Commission staff takes the advocate position on behalf of the people of Alabama, and even though we have accomplished much of our 1978 goal, there still remains a lot to be done. We need to implement computer capabilities which many other states throughout the nation already have. We also need to continue to improve the Commission's rate-making capabilities until the day we can truly say the Alabama Public Service Commission is as good as any other in the nation."

Folsom concluded by saying, "If re-elected, I will pledge honest, objective and fair utility regulation on behalf of all the voters of Alabama."

Justice Adams Seeks Seat Three

Justice Oscar W. Adams of the Alabama Supreme Court announced recently that he will seek election to the seat number three on the court. Justice Adams has served in this position since his appointment to the court in 1980.

While Adams is known as a moderate on the court, shortly after his appointment he wrote a concurring opinion supporting the effectiveness of Alabama's death penalty as a deterrent to crime.

In making his announcement, Adams outlined his views of the role of the court. "I believe a Supreme Court Justice must make the rule of law, and not personal bias, the law of the land. It is only through the law that we protect the individual from 'tyranny,' he said.

Adams said he feels the role of the court becomes more vital as societal issues become more complex, and as our laws must resolve broader reaching conflicts among competing interests.

"The court must interpret the law in such a way as to maintain the integrity of the law itself, and yet make the law applicable to the problems it must resolve," he said.

Adams is the first black justice to serve on the Alabama Supreme Court. At the time of his appointment, he was hailed by the press as a highly qualified member of the Bar, and a worthy appointment to the state's highest bench.

When Gov. James took his task force to the far east, Adams was among those helping recruit new industry and jobs for our state.

Adams and his wife, Wilma, have three children and three grandchildren.

We wish to thank every person in the community for all their many acts of love and kindness shown to our wife and mother during her long illness.

We also wish to thank each and everyone for all the many wonderful things you have done for us during our recent bereavement. A special thank-you to the ladies who brought all the food to the house. We love you all.

HRDC - A Place For Teens & Older

The "Bandanna Fun Bunch" entertained at a get-together of about 80 folks at the HRDC Center in Elba last Friday. It was a day of fun, fellowship and of course, music, as the Kinship and Elba Human Resource participants came together to hear some "good ole pickin' and singin'" from a group that lays no claim to greatness, but takes great stock in having fun and dispensing it with their music.

Most members of the group are retired, and hail from the vicinity of Opp. They travel around to entertain wherever they are invited, and enjoy themselves immensely while doing so.

The group will entertain the Senior Citizens of Coffee and Houston Counties at Ft. Rucker's Lake Tholoco on Thursday, July 15. Transportation will be provided.

HRDC is a community organization reaching out to various ages in providing a place for fellowship, enjoyment, learning, etc., and is available for any person of any age, race or sex, with special emphasis toward Senior Citizens and teenagers.

Teens may go to the building on Putnam Street at any time, with any specific problems they may have, especially questions about teenage pregnancy, its prevention, ways to deal with the problem, and referrals to any professional organization that may be necessary.

They may also go for crafts, to learn about sewing, ceramics, or just to get together when "there's nothing to do." Ceramics day is Tuesday.

As for the older residents of the area, there are quilting, ceramics, field trips, and mostly just getting together. Covered dish meals are enjoyed frequently, and many times transportation is furnished to various functions.

So if you're wanting to get out and be with others and have fun, make it a point to become involved with the folks at HRDC. You'll be glad you did!

Just give Merle Bolling or Morteille McCormick a call at 897-2607, and ask for details.

ARE YOU AT PEACE?
Good news came last week when we learned that the killing in the Falklands has stopped. Over the weekend we learned that two ships of P.O.W.'s had been returned to Argentina, yet the news from the military government did not give indication that the fighting was over for sure. For many people, this has become a way of life. We have almost tuned out the Middle East when they talk about peace, and wonder how soon the shooting and bombing will be silent or how soon it will resume. For many, peace simply means a period of time when there is no shooting and what has been called the "cold war" goes on all the time. Could it be that this kind of attitude has affected our thinking and caused us to settle for the end of open conflict but never expect true peace?

WHAT IS YOUR DEFINITION OF PEACE? It is simply an absence of conflict. For the businessman it may be the competition or settling a labor dispute, for the family it may be a dispute over finances or the way of life. For a teenager it may be the conflict with parents or other authorities. Regardless of our age or station or rank, we each have people or things which are constantly at war with us. Sometimes we may win a battle or call a truce or even be defeated and in this way find a time of peace, or is it just a lull in preparation for another battle? Much of life is that way, and even with all of our preparation and planning, there is nothing we can do about it. For a housewife, the cooking, washing dishes and clothes, and cleaning house is a never-ending job, unless there is no one left to care for, and that can be even worse. The farmer, the soldier, along with so many other vocations, call for eternal vigilance. If we look at it as a war, there is never a time of truce, and seldom a lull.

PEACE IS NOT JUST AN ABSENCE OF TROUBLE. It is a state of mind. How we feel about ourselves and those to whom we relate will have a great influence on what we are and how we do it. It is interesting to see different people in the same situation and their way of life through it. Until we are at peace with ourselves, we will never be at peace anywhere. Our feelings about who we are and what we have more to do with our relations to others and can eliminate battles or start them. The Bible says, "As a man thinketh, so is he." But how do you change your thinking? Can a man lift himself by his bootstraps? No hardly. But there is a source and power outside that can come into our lives and change our lives, as well as the world and our place, as well as our worth to Him, will greatly determine the battles we fight and bring about that can give our lives as God gives us peace. For peace is a gift from God and we can only have it by faith as we have a right relation with our creator, God and Savior, Then the battles may rage on the outside, but God gives peace within. We can't stop conflicts, but when we are at peace with God and ourselves, then we find peace with those about us. God give you PEACE.

AARP Enjoys
Monthly Social

BY: NELLIE B. MARTIN

With four enthusiastic young ladies such as Mrs. Catherine Mullins, Mrs. Ola B. Kendrick, Mrs. Doris Pinckard and Mrs. Erlene Poole serving as hostesses, a simple party becomes a superior affair.

The occasion was the regular monthly meeting of the AARP chapter of the American Association of Retired People. The spacious conference room at The Peoples Bank was a perfect place for the entertainment.

Previous affairs had left the tables and chairs in storage - nevertheless, a handsome young man, James Ross Poole, came to the ladies' rescue. See - he was drafted by his mother; and soon the ladies had a pretty party room all set up.

A footed crystal chandelier held a huge arrangement of multi-colored, open-faced roses. This was the center attraction at the head table. At intervals, bud vases with clusters of buds added color and beauty to the long tables. The roses came from Mrs. Poole's garden.

Due to the absence of the president, Dr. J.M. Kimmy, Mr. Lloyd Crook guided and directed the business. Mrs. Lucille DeVane gave the secretary's report of the May meeting, and named Mrs. Odell B. Reeves as a new member.

Assuming the spotlight under New Business was Mrs. Sue Stinson, a new member.

Mrs. Eva Dallas Hudson was introduced as a special visitor; she was guest of Mrs. Carrie Jacobs.

Many were the food containers filled with a variety of natural ingredients cooked just right. The spread could have been classified as a feast or down-home food spread!

Those so desiring enjoyed an hour of Bingo or Rook. The July meeting will be held at the lakeside cottage Whitman. Hostesses assisting the Whitmans will be Mrs. Thelma Clark, Mrs. Little Mae Farris and Mrs. Mary McCall.

Weeks Joins Race For Senate Seat

MIKE WEEKS

State Senator Mike Weeks of Troy announced he will seek reelection to the Alabama Senate.

Weeks, who represents the 23rd District, is currently serving his first term in the Senate. The 23rd District includes Barbour, Bullock, Coffee, Dale, Henry, Macon and Pike counties.

In announcing his plans to seek reelection, Weeks said he views his four years in the Senate "as a tremendous learning experience."

"I have enjoyed working with the Legislature, and if one enjoys doing something, it's not hard to be successful. I believe I have become much more effective in the Legislature each year of my term. It is a known fact that an experienced legislator is much more effective, and I believe my experience over the last four years will enable me to better serve the people of my district during the next four years."

Weeks said contact with his constituents has been the most enjoyable aspect of his term in the Senate. "I've enjoyed helping people in my district solve their problems. Sometimes they can't get help they need by contacting the various departments of state government. It isn't that our state departments aren't helpful or sympathetic, it's just a case of not being able to find the right person to get the assistance they need. Often, it's at that point that they will call on me, and I've enjoyed using the prestige of my office in helping my constituents solve these problems."

During his term in the Senate, Weeks said he had spent considerable time killing bad legislation. He added that he had only missed one day in four years, and this was because of a death in the family.

He said he had enjoyed legislation was special interest oriented, and, basically, this was not good for his constituents.

He said he would like to establish a regular method of communicating with his constituents, and would welcome input from voters in District 23 on ways to establish an effective means of communication between his office and the people in his district.

Weeks said his reelection campaign would not center on any particular issues. "I just want to continue to represent the people of District 23 to the best of my ability. I also want to continue to work with local, county, and city officials by listening and trying to help solve their problems."

He said he had enjoyed working in the Alabama Senate, and in the next four years felt he would be able to do a better job of representing the people of District 23.

His standing committee assignments in the Senate include Agriculture, Conservation and Forestry; Business and Labor Relations; Banking and Insurance; Commerce, Transportation and Utilities.

Four weeks of long and hard rehearsals have gone into making "1776" one of the best productions ever presented in this and surrounding areas.

"1776" is billed as America's Prize Winning Musical with music and lyrics by Sherman Edwards and Book by Peter Stone. It is based on a concept by Sherman Edwards and the original production was directed by Peter Hunt. It was originally produced on the Broadway stage by Stuart Osofsky.

The Elba Softball Classic is coming up this weekend and it looks like our strongest field ever, with ten Class A teams and two open teams included in the 16-team field. Local teams include The Peoples Bank, Elba Exchange Bank and the Elba Merchants, and all three will give it all they've got to knock off some of the so-called "big boys" and win a trophy.

Some of the teams to watch include M&S of Enterprise, a hard-hitting team led by Bill Hope that placed second in last week's Watermelon Festival in Chipley; Andalusia Corp., a team that swings for the fence and features such hitters as Billy Jones, Curtis James and Big John Daniels; Cook Technical, formerly the Andalusia Merchants, who have won nine tournaments already this year; Jay Bulls, a perennial power that is a threat in any tourney it enters; L & L Royals, one of Montgomery's top open teams that live by the long ball; Northwest Florida Office Supply and Sporting Goods, known as Cash's, the defending Classic champions; Milliken Carpets, an up-and-coming power out of Ozark, led by Bobby Joe Ellisworth and Bonnie Herrington; Lake City Travellers of Eufaula, a solid Class A team with countless tourney titles; Miller Lite Merchants, formerly known as the Salt Shop Merchants, a former Classic winner out of Montgomery; AAMCO Transmission, the top-ranked team in Montgomery and a true "open" power, and Montgomery Air Freight, another Montgomery-based team looking to add the Classic trophy to its collection.

The tourney will start Friday night at Legion Field, while on Saturday games will be played at both Legion Field and the high school - all day! There will be plenty of bleachers at both fields, as well as concession stands; so come on out and make a day of it.

The local softball league only has three weeks left, and it still looks like several teams could pull out a championship in either division. In the "A Division" the Elba Exchange Bank has opened up a two-game lead over P & M Trucking, and three-game leads over both the Peoples Bank and the New Brockton Merchants, but it looks as if any of the four could get hot and win it all. Roy's Package and the Elba Merchants are the title hunt; however, they have both shown the ability to pull off upsets and will play a big part in determining who wins the crown.

In the "B Division" I double-checked my books and found out I had made a mistake in Hammond's Body Shop's record, and now it seems Hammond and Cook Chevrolet are tied for first, with the Hickory Pit and Fuller Brothers both close behind.

Kleinert's team has a lot of talent and can beat anybody on any given night, while Work Release is also capable of an upset. IAM and Grimes Oil both are having "down" seasons and seem to be in the winning touch; but don't count 'em out - both have got good players and could prove leagues are going to go right down to the wire and both crowns are definitely up for grabs.

The Babe Ruth season came to an end last week and it was a very interesting season as Mike McCollough's White Sox. These two teams went to it "tooth and nail" all season long, and when they met it was always a classic battle. The Reds, coached by Terry Gunnells, came through with a 500 average despite having the youngest team in the league; and when they hit the ball they could score on anybody. The Reds, coached by Doug Lee, had a long season, but never quit giving it all they had, and Stan Lewis and his squad are to be congratulated for their effort. Despite owning a 2-11 record and trailing 14-6 in the final game, the Dodgers actually came back and went ahead, only to lose in the last inning. That is truly a "never-say-die" attitude!

The Dixie Youth League is in its final week and the league is having its best pennant drive ever. Going into the final two nights, the Cardinals and Tigers are tied for first, with the Mets only half a game out! The league will end tonight (Thursday) and the All Stars will be named. So, come on out and cheer 'em on.

Last but certainly not least, Elba's Johnny Martin competed in the Alabama State Leathers and Tackles Tournament last week and placed fourth in a field of 87 golfers. Johnny, a two-time champ in the event, was only two shots out going into Sunday's final round, but couldn't get it going and closed with a 77 to finish two shots back.

Smurfettes & Beavers Roll To Girls Softball Wins

The 10-12 girls softball league continued its season last week with the Smurfettes and Beavers claiming wins.

Smurfettes 20

The Smurfettes claimed their first win by smashing the Chargers 20-2. The Smurfettes jumped on top never slowed down in claiming the victory. Vickie Berry scored four runs to lead the Smurfettes; Addie Coleman and Teri Finner added three apiece. Susie Kelley, Whitney Wise and Christi Burket added two, while Angie Dixon, Wendy Moulton, Melissa Kellner, Lori Fudge, Anita Cordell and Donna Farris and Lisa Lindsey all scored once.

Dixie Youth Champ To Be Crowned Tonight

The Dixie Youth Baseball League is now in its final week of action and three teams are still in the hunt for the league championship. Standings thru Friday, June 18, showed the Cardinals and Tigers tied for first with identical 8-4 records, followed closely by the Mets at 8-5. Rounding out the standings are the Pirates, 6-6; Astros, 5-7; and Yankees, 1-10.

Following are highlights of last week's action:

Mets 16
Pirates 2
The Mets exploded for 11 runs in the second inning to take the lead, and coasted to a 16-2 win over the Pirates. The two clubs were tied at 2-2 after one inning, but the Mets received five straight walks to open the second and then Gappa Wise ripped a grand slam home run to start the Mets' offensive. Wise & Coleman Share Honors In Dixie Youth

Gappa Wise, a hard-hitting catcher for the Mets, and Leon Coleman, a stand-out pitcher for the Cardinals, shared the honor as the Dixie Youth League "Player of the Week."

Wise went five for seven in the Mets' two games last week, including two home runs, and drove in five runners. One of Wise's home runs was a grand slam that sparked the Mets to a big win.

A's Drop Final Games But Claim BR Crown

The Babe Ruth Baseball League season came to an end last week with the A's claiming the league championship with a 10-4 record. The White Sox finished second with a record of 9-5, followed by the Reds at 7-7 and the Dodgers at 2-12.

Following are highlights of last week's action:

White Sox 15
A's 4
Bryan Payne tossed a no-hitter and struck out seven batters to spark the White Sox to a 15-4 win over the A's. The White Sox jumped out to a 4-0 first-inning lead on a two-run triple by Jack Lee and a two-run homer by Randy Greathouse, and added four runs in the second to take an 8-0 bulge. A double by Mike McCollough knocked in a pair of runs in the frame, while Jack Lee drove in the other two runs with a single. The A's scored in the second to make the score 8-1. However, the Sox kept on hitting and moved on top 11-1 in the third. A bases-loaded double by Craig Murdoch gave the A's a ray of hope in the fourth inning, but it was short-lived as the White Sox pulled away for the win.

Terry Hammond and Jack Lee got two hits apiece for the Sox, while Mike McCollough, Art Brunson, Randy Greathouse and Boyd English all added one hit. Craig Murdoch and John Hudson got the only A's hits.

Dodgers 14
Reds 4
The Dodgers exploded to score 10 runs in the final two innings and buried the Reds 14-4. The Reds took advantage of two walks and three errors to grab a 3-0 lead in the top of the first, but the White Sox put the Yankees back in the game at 3-2. However, the Cardinals added a run in the third to up a lead to 4-2 and then added four runs in the fifth to claim a 9-2 win.

Dean Hooks and Waters got one hit apiece for the Cardinals, while Steve Magwood tossed a no-hitter and struck out eight batters.

Astros 7
Tigers 6
The Astros built up a big lead early in the game and held on to edge the Tigers 7-6. The Astros got only one hit in the opening two innings, but took advantage of seven walks to grab a 5-0 lead. The Tigers pulled within 5-3 in the third, but the Astros stretched their advantage to 7-3 in the fourth, and then turned back a late Tiger rally to claim the narrow win.

Troy Kelley and Matt Henderson got one hit apiece for the Astros, while Leon Coleman got three hits for the Tigers and Bryan Free, Wynn Grimes and Bobby Bowden all got one.

Cardinals 8
Yankees 2
The Cardinals led all the way to post a hard-fought 8-2 win over the Yankees. The Cards didn't get a hit in the opening two innings, but made the most of five walks to take a 3-0 lead. Five straight walks resulted in the Tigers pushed across three runs in the tenth inning to claim an exciting 4-1 win over the Mets in the longest game of the Dixie Youth season. The Tigers took advantage of four straight walks to take a 1-0 lead in the opening inning, but the Mets came right back to tie it up at 1-1 in the second when Barry Bryan singled and came around to score. Neither Wynn Grimes, Leon Coleman and Bobby Bowden got two hits apiece for the Tigers, while Troy Sanders and Junior Tills both added one. Gappa Wise got two hits for the Mets, while Barry Bryan got one.

The Pirates spotted the Cardinals an early 5-0 lead and then came roaring back to shoot down the Birds and win a 15-5 victory. The Cards scored twice in the first inning to take the lead and added three runs in the second to go on top 5-0. The Pirates came to life in the bottom of the second, however, and combined three clutch hits with six walks to rally and take a 6-5 lead. The Pirates' lead went to 7-5 in the third and the Pirates then blew it open with an eight-run fourth and breezed to the win.

Jason Johnson got three hits for the Pirates, while Lamar Stokes and Brett Bryan both added one. Willie Flowers and Steve Magwood got one hit each for the Cards.

Pride At Midnight Grand Champion In Deep South Show

By JACK YEISER

The Fourth Annual Deep South Racking Horse Show was held in Elba May 29th. The show is put on each year by the Deep South Racking Horse Association and the Elba Volunteer Fire Department. Without any qualifications, it is one of the best organized shows on the "circuit." It appears that Frances Bradshaw is responsible for this, although she would not want to take credit for it. They always have the local beauty queens (the extremely attractive young ladies) out to present the ribbons, and nothing, absolutely nothing, is left to chance. The show was judged by the Honorable Eddie Barrow, the Honorable Bud Cummings, and the Honorable Don Williams. Due to differences in the ring schedule, they were watching horses perform under different conditions, depending on where they were standing. They did center ring officials stood around waiting for the competition, they failed to materialize, and that is unusual.

As I left the motel for the 6:00 p.m. starting time, it was 99 degrees with 98% humidity—summer had arrived in the Deep South. Exhibitors knew that they had to start showing when they came in, the judges intelligently tied the classes in a hurry. Bobby Bohannon, showing out of Pinehaven Stables in Clinton, Ala., won four blues, including the Grand Championship on Lawrence Kofner's Pride At Midnight, with a "triple one" victory. I have watched this animal ever since Percy Walden had him as a four-year-old; and, at Elba, he was at his best ever. This year, he was the favorite to win the World Grand Championship, but ran into leg problems late in the season. His Elba performance could have won him the roses against any level of competition. Jack Brewer made a strong ride on King Magic for the Reserve ribbon, and Craig Williams brought the good High Hopes in third.

In the four-year-old class, Bohannon rode Allen Entinger's Shining Sun to a strong triple one victory. This new horse was consistent and stylish in all three gaits. Craig Williams was second on High Wind, and Max Jones brought Mack's Black Diamond W. and Susan Pitts was third on The Mystery Man.

The Aged Mare class featured Bobby Bohannon riding another Kofner entry, the You Light Up My Life mare; and they rode hard to stay ahead of Renee Majors and Sunset Silhouette. It was close, but You Light Up My Life won the Aged Mare title. Third went to Billy Webster and Midnight Doc's India. Bohannon also won the Style Racking class on her good The Racking Review Beat Nites Sensation. In the past year, this horse is undefeated on Saturday night. best to beat a strong field for the Juvenile, 17 and Under blue. They have made big strides this year and are factors in the Juvenile division at any show. Reserve went to Connie Missilline and Little Bomb with Mindy Traylor and Southern Style taking third.

Pete Dorsey, who finished second in the Open Amateur Class, was not satisfied with the red ribbon and brought 45's Mistake back in the Aged Stallion and Gelding class and won. He beat two first class horses in the process. Tim Brown and Max Jones brought Mack's Black Diamond W. and Susan Pitts was third on The Mystery Man.

Mark Williams rode Scott Pridden's High Altitude to a strong triple one win in the Men's Racking class. They looked exceptionally good. Jim Grantham was second on Shaker's Son Midnight, and Max Jones was third on Big Man's Delight.

The Flat Shod class was sort of "in and out," as all three horses had trouble coping with the uneven ring surface. In the End Clause John and Peyton's Place won over Bert Williams and Steady Tyder with Lex Helms bringing Pete's Perfection in third.

Odell Walker made a good ride on Sensational Beau for the blue in the Amateur Owned and Trained class. It was one of the larger classes of the show, and this talented team performed with style and action. Carolyn Schwab made a strong show on Squire's High Roller for second, and Gene Ditty was third on Night Patrol.

There were ten entries in the Show Pleasure and Vivian Lassiter and Sunnyvale's Pride left little doubt that they were the outstanding pair in the field. I'll be anxious to see them go against Cass Jones and The Gray Ghost. Show Pleasure could become as exciting as the Stake class with these top teams competing. The red ribbon went to a good Captain Black with Pauline Godwin and the yellow was claimed by Annabelle Parker and Sunset Mr. Lucky.

Tim Brown brought one of the best two-year-old files out this year and won the Three and Under Amateur class on Copy's Society Lady. This class may be capable of going up in North Alabama and taking on the big boys. It was a triple one win, by the way. Lex Helms was second on Bay Master and Gina Tribble The Racking Review was third on Midnight Magic.

One of the most exciting classes is always the Speed Racking event, and Charlie Hall had Simon Garfunkle smoking to take a triple one win. They are fast! Max Jones was second on Shadow's Smoke and Doug McWaters was third on Smokey Joe B.

Elba drew 137 entries for their 18 class show and competition was strong in almost every class. I've been to all four Deep South Shows and they get just a little better each year; there are strong plans underway for a permanent facility in 1983, and that's all they need to be one of the very best events on the circuit. We all enjoyed it and look forward to seeing you next year.
